ELECTRICAL DEPARTMENT

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF ELECTRICAL ENGINEER,

Bangalore, 7th January 1941.
(MYSORE, S. INDIA.)

The Chief Secretary
to the Government of Mysore, BANGALORE.

CHIEF SECY. * 13. JAN. 1941 * GOVT. OF MYSORE.

Sir,

RECRUITMENT FOR WAR SERVICE.

I have the honour to enclose herewith the application of Mr.C.Sukumaran, Clerk, Power and Light, Bangalore, offering himself for war service as a Store-man or Clerk in the Indian Army Ordinance Corps, for favour of transmission to the Technical Recruiting Officer, Bangalore.

2) The official holds only a temporary appointment in the Regular Establishment of this Department and requests that his lien on his appointment may be retained till he returns from the war service. I request you to kindly intimate if he could be granted to have such a lien on the appointment.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

CHIEF ELECTRICAL ENGINEER.

Subd with a draft as fair & the Reasons. Re Para 2 the official holds only a temporary appt. Further the question arises only if he is selected for appt.

If the retention of his lien on the temporary appt. here is one of the Conditions subject to which he is prepared to accept war service, a decision re: A. is necessary now.

As he is only temporary (though he has put in 3 yrs of Service), the retention of his lien can only be allowed under special circumstances. For Leg. may perhaps be consulted on this point.

Chief Sec

Q A 20/1

Is the appointment likely to be permanent or for what period is it temporary? If the appointment is for a term of years, then would it be necessary to guarantee reinstatement on return from War Service up to that period. The Resr had referred to this matter in another connection. Please verify.

With refce to the Chief Secys minute dated 25th inst regarding reinstatement, referred to the Resident is with regard to the European British subjects called up for national service as the necessary legislation is being enacted in Mysore also. In the case of European British subjects it is conscription since they cannot refuse. The other cases do not fall in line with the above since the offr for War Service is voluntary.

Flag X

It has already been decided in the case of Govt servants that the concessions mentioned in the G.O dated 26th May 1915 and shown on the last occasion (Great War) may be shown now also.

In the present case the official is a temporary employee and it is a point for consideration and orders whether the G.O will be applicable to him. Submitted for perusal and orders.

RS 23/11

This is a case of a temporary employee of the Electrical Dept. Volunteering for ~~active~~ war service in a non-Combatant capacity - apparently in his own interests. There appears to be no obligation on the part of Govt. to guarantee ~~his~~ retention of his lien. If at all, it is to be allowed as a matter of grace.

The Fin. Depr. may perhaps be consulted if, having in view the tenure of the post held by the applicant and the service put in by him, any guarantee of lien can or may be given.

Information may kindly be obtained as observed by the Chief Secretary, whether the official would be confirmed ultimately without any interruption in service and whether he could come under long leave rules. Liberal concessions are apparently allowed in British India for those who go out to War Service and there may not be any difficulty in his being taken back after he returns from War Service, ~~and therefore there may not be any necessity to give him any special lien on a temporary appointment.~~

It seems better if an application from the candidate to the Officer Concerned is obtained and sent. Submitted with a letter to the Director

RS 14/8

The application is for a ministerial job and in general terms. He is stated to have been now drawing Rs 33/-, is a graduate who has put in 7 years of service.

The pamphlet is intended to help the unemployed to get jobs and there has been no special demand from the British authorities asking for our cooperation in getting recruits for clerical jobs.

I am not sure if it is necessary for Govt. to encourage clerks in Govt. service to seek service outside on such indefinite terms, and in case they get a clerical job outside whether it is worth while continuing their lien in the State service etc. There is a
